

May the Morning (Psalm 143)

Stephen Pearson

1. May the morning bring Your un-fail-ing love.

2. May the morning bring Your un-fail-ing love.

3. May the morning bring Your un-fail-ing love.

(3. Alt) May the morning bring Your un-fail-ing love.

Show me the way, Lord, the way that I should go.
Save my life, Lord, from the en-e-my.
May Your Spir-it lead me a-long the Way.
Teach me Your will, Lord, that I may walk in Light.

You are my Trust, Lord.
Grant sal-va-tion to one who loves You,
Lift these trou-bles, dis-pel the gloom of
Lift my dark-ness, and shed Your grace on You.

To Coda

In-to Your hands, Lord, do I lift my soul.
An-swer me quick-ly. Do not hide from me!

Such My troubles spirit is fail - ing. My crush my heart sinks life with in dis - dread tress.

I live in dark - ness, the dark - ness of the dead — the I thirst for You, Lord, the touch of Your car - dead, O Lord! ess — be with me!

May dark-ness van - ish be - fore Your light of day.
May Your love, Lord, shine forth to end the night.
